

Initial Client Consultation Interview Form

The purpose of our initial consultation is to determine whether anything may be done for you, and the minimum fees for my services. Our first consultation will provide us with an opportunity to assess your options. After our initial consultation and after I receive the relevant documents and information, we will discuss in detail your legal causes of action.

One of three outcomes is possible following your consultation.

A. You and I mutually agree to the terms of representation, or

(After a separate document called an Agreement for Representation is signed, a copy will be provided to you.)

B. I decline to represent you, or

C. You decide not to use my services.

In anticipation of our first meeting, I am asking that answer the questions asked below. Please e-mail me back your responses to noblelaw@bellsouth.net.

Note: The following questions will help me understand the reason for your visit today. As an attorney your responses are protected by attorney/client privilege and will be held in strict confidence.

Following your initial interview, if you agree to hire the Attorney, and the Attorney agrees to represent you, you will both sign an Agreement for Representation. The Agreement for Representation will set forth the terms and conditions of representation.

If the Attorney is willing to represent you and you decide not to sign an Agreement of Representation today, you are strongly urged to schedule a second appointment with the Attorney at the earliest possible time or to immediately consult with other legal counsel to protect your rights.

NOTICE: This office does not represent you with regard to the matters set forth by you herein in this information sheet or discussed during your consultation, unless and until, both you and the Attorney execute a written Agreement for Representation.

If the Attorney does not agree to represent you, this includes not representing you with regard to the matter set forth by you on this information sheet, or any other matters you may discuss with the Attorney during your consultation. If your legal problem(s) involve a potential lawsuit, it is important that you realize a lawsuit must be filed within a certain period of time called a Statute of Limitations. Therefore, the Attorney strongly urges you to immediately consult with another attorney to protect your rights. The Attorney's decision not to represent you should not be taken by you as an expression regarding the merits of your case.

Your signature acknowledges only that you received a copy of this completed information sheet and does not mean you have hired the Attorney.
